Psalter: Week II

In his encyclical, "Pacem in terris"

Pope John XXIII wrote: "Peace on earth, which all people of every era have most eagerly yearned for, can be firmly established only if the order laid down by God be dutifully observed". The pope reiterated the exaltation of Pius XII that: "Nothing is lost by peace...Jesus brings us peace and leaves us peace". One of humankind's natural desires especially at the individual and family levels is to live a peaceful and peaceable life with oneself, with others and with one's environment. Ordinarily, one would expect that with the discovery and invention of means that make life easier and more meaningful, that humanity would enjoy more peace. Unfortunately, it has not been so. Because peace is a gift of, and from God, it must be appreciated and preserved.

This Sunday therefore, we must bear in mind that peace only takes root in the human heart, that peace is blind to barriers of denominations, race, ideologies, philosophies, and geography, and that a powerful sense of peace grows out of an appreciation of our closeness with our creator, neighbours, and with all the tiny elements of creation. Furthermore, peace is golden! So we must actively seek it, grasp it, nurture it, and value it.

SEA SUNDAY: Next week is Sea Sunday, when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea. The Apostleship of the Sea (AoS) is the official maritime welfare agency of the Catholic Church in Great Britain. The Apostleship of the Sea reaches out to seafarers visiting our ports, offering pastoral and practical support and care. AoS is wholly dependent on voluntary donations to continue its work of bringing the love of Christ to seafarers in the name of the Church, recognising them as our brothers and sisters in need. Sea Sunday is your chance to help AoS make a real difference to the lives of seafarers. Everything AoS does is on behalf of Britain's Catholic community. The parish will take up a second collection on Sea Sunday for the work of AoS - so please give generously. Its ministry cannot continue without your support. For more information on the work of AoS please visit their website at www.apostleshipofthesea.org.uk
