The first reading today is from the Book of Jeremiah the Prophet. His own experiences show us what happens when a person tries to be true to what God is saying and because of that attempt, preaches truths that are unpopular. The Christian message today is unpopular. Nice feelings about one another are popular. The hard work of committing oneself to another person in marriage or committing oneself to a community through vows is not popular.

Second reading from the Letter to the Hebrews challenges us to be ready

20th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Mass Readings

1st Reading: Jeremiah 38: 4 - 10

Psalm: 39

2nd Reading: Hebrews 12: 1 - 4

Gospel: Luke 12: 49 - 53

18 August 2013

Psalter: Week IV

to endure the cross every day and not be ashamed of suffering. We are invited to see Jesus and then not grow weary and lose heart as we try to live the Gospel in our lives.

The Gospel today is from Saint Luke. It also tells us that the Word of God brings division and not peace. If our following of Jesus separates us from others, that is simply the price that we must pay for trying to be faithful. If our love for others invites ridicule, that is simply the price that we must pay.

May they grow in their love for and commitment to each other!!

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Divine Jesus, Son of the eternal Father and Mary Immaculate, grant many of the faithful true generosity in following your call, and bestow on them the grace of your Holy Spirit to persevere in overcoming all obstacles to their vocations. Give the church in this Diocese and throughout the world many holy priests and fervent religious. Through the intercession of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary, all the Angels, St. Winefride and all Saints, we humbly ask you to hear our prayers and multiply the ministries by which we may serve one another in faith and love.

Hail Mary...

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, unite us perfectly to your adoration, thanksgiving, reparation and intercession; make of us with you, a host of sacrifice to the Divinity and sacrament to the souls. O my God and my all, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, may your will be done, your love reign, your glory shine always more in me and in everyone as in yourself, O my God and my all.

(Blessed Justin)

On Track: Poems from Welsh Pilgrimage: everyone is invited to this special event to listen to quiet reading of poems and stories inspired by the Age of the Saints, legends, history and people of Wales. All poems were written by Suzanne Iuppa, a charity worker and poet from North Wales and she has taken part in the Welsh Cultural Olympiad last year, walking a pilgrimage across Wales. This is a free event and is open for all. It will be at the Well on Sunday 8th September 2013, starting at 2:30pm. For more details, contact Fr Anil or Mr John L'Aiguille.

QUEEN OF PEACE EVENING: on Sunday 25th August. Rosary prayer at 7:30pm, followed by Holy Mass, Adoration and Benediction.

ANNIVERSARIES

Emma Jones, Kathleen Jones, Doris O'Neill, Leslie Boswell, Kevin Boyes

May they rest in Peace!

Pray for those who are SICK

Fr Tony Jones, Pauline Campbell, Anna Asbury, Maeve O'Malley, Imelda Davies, Val Davies, Peter Hunt, Rex Brain, Olive Yates & Olwen Nicholls

May you receive God's Blessing
